On Keeping Christmas . . .

"It was always said of him that he knew how to keep Christmas well."
—A Christmas Carol

Thus did Dickens describe the reformed Scrooge. Will it be said of us that we knew how to keep Christmas well?

Will it be said of those among us who will injure or perhaps even kill our fellow men in the days ahead because we drank too much at the office party, or in a friend's home, or in our favorite tavern?

Will it be said of the friendly boss who threw the party for the gang, or the host whose alcohol impaired the driving ability of his guests, or the bartender who did not persuade his intoxicated customers to call a cab?

If history repeats itself, one out of every two drivers killed in a traffic accident in this area during the holiday period will be under the influence of alcohol.

We are aware that these are unpleasant thoughts for this time of year. But consider a youngster who will lose his father. For him the holidays will be a nightmare.

Is not Christmas a holy observance? Jesus, whose birth we celebrate, was one day to say, "I have come that men may have life, and may have it in all its fullness." His birth was "good news" because by it God affirmed once and for all the value of life.

Should we not also affirm it, so that it can be said of us that we knew how to keep Christmas well.

Agenda Items For Council Session Listed

Because the Times is being published one day early this week, the City Council meeting was not covered last night.

On the agenda was a report from City Attorney Lawrence Saler concerning holidays Dec. 24 and 31 for city employees. He had prepared an emergency ordinance granting the days off should the Council decide to grant them.

Administrative Officer James B. Turner had recommended an extension of time for completion of city buildings to Jan. 9. The contractor had asked for a completion date of Jan. 27.

The Planning and Zoning commission reaffirmed its position in denying the variance request of B. I. Pruter of 1127 Talbot.

Turner was to have reported on the outcome of his meeting with the Board of Supervisors last Tuesday morning concerning the Albany Library contract with the county.

Council received a copy of a communication sent by Kenneth M. Forry to Bay Area Rapid Transit concerning excavations on Masonic Avenue.

Jay Gould Ill

Jay Gould of 1235 Portland is seriously ill at Albany hospital. A longtime Albany resident, he has been active in Boy Scout work and other civic projects.

Early Deadlines For Next Issue

The New Year's edition of the Times will be delivered on Tuesday, Dec. 28, instead of Wednesday as usual.

News and pictures must be submitted by noon Thursday. The deadline for classified ads will be noon Monday and for display advertising, 5 p.m. Friday.

Unusual Gifts At The Garage

The imaginative shopper can always find the unusual at the Garage—and at unbelievably reasonable prices and double satisfaction.

The gift purchased will add to the artistic decor of the most discriminating homemaker and will be received with enthusiasm. The proceeds of your purchase will go to Philippine welfare projects and mission work. This year Bob Dennis has added shell jewelry to the beautifully rubbed wood carvings he has specially selected for the shoppers' pleasure.

The Garage, as always, is located at 1003 Solano Ave. and a telephone call to Bob at 525-3148 or 526-6441 will set up an appointment to complete your Christmas gift giving with satisfaction in spirit and substance.

The only problem is that once you have made your purchase from the Garage it is a temptation to keep it—rather than give it!

VISIONS OF SUGAR PLUMS—These Albany Pre-School youngsters were enchanted by a visit from Santa Claus at their Christmas party last Friday. It didn't even matter that Santa was a Pre-School Mom. Mrs. Nell Curran, director, assisted with distribution of gifts.

School Board Will Ask For Tax Increase April 12

The board of education of Albany Unified School District decided last Tuesday to ask voter approval of a 50-cent tax increase at the municipal election April 12.

The current tax rate is $3.45 per $100 assessed valuation plus a restricted tax rate of 8 1/2 cents. If approved by the voters, the increase would make a total tax rate of $4.80 1/2.

The same polling places and precinct officials would be used as for the city election.

Superintendent Kenneth Forry estimates the increase will bring an additional $110,000 income to the district.

He proposed distribution as follows: $55,000 to increase the salary schedule by 4.5 per cent, which will bring Albany's lagging salary scale within "comparability" to other school districts; $25,000 to implement a long range maintenance program and replace worn out equipment; $12,000 to hire additional teachers to meet legislative mandates that require all primary classes be reduced from 33 to 30 by 1968-69; $18,000 to add to the depleted reserve fund.

Part of the school district's financial problem is the removal of more than $300,000 from the tax rolls because of Rapid Transit's right-of-way through the residential area on Masonic Avenue.

Rec Department Sets Annual Basketball Clinic

Once again, Albany schools and the Recreation Department are working together to hold a Christmas basketball clinic for boys of all ages.

It opened yesterday and will continue through Dec. 31. The clinic is free and to register, show up at the Albany High school gym with basketball shoes and attire for the proper session. Charles Clarke and Don Dupin, along with members of the AHS basketball team, are in charge.

Sixth, seventh and eighth graders will play from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; ninth through eleventh graders, 12:30 to 3 p.m., and general play will be from 3 to 5 p.m.

The board discussed pros and cons of the tax election until 11 p.m., when it voted 5-0 in favor of Member Milton Porter's motion to schedule the election.

Albany school board's long battle to obtain reimbursement for educating children from University Village was again discussed. The board has considered the possibility of a lawsuit against the UC Board of Regents. Forry said that Albany's problem now seems to be in the hands of Chancellor Roger Heyns. His request for a meeting to discuss the situation with Heyns has brought no results to date.

Mrs. Grafton Geering was formally seated as a member of the board.

Ribbon-Cutting

Mrs. Carl Mac Williams, chairman of the ribbon-cutting ceremonies, has supervised issuing of invitations to dignitaries from President Lyndon B. Johnson to former city employees.

Souvenir programs are being donated by Security Savings and Loan. Special card inserts for the invitations are being provided by Ellis-Olson mortuary. The shop at Albany High school is making large scissors for the ceremony. Senior Citizens are assisting by addressing invitations.

Rev. John H. Blackledge of St. Alban's Episcopal church will give the invocation; Father P. M. Finnegan of St. Ambrose Catholic church will deliver the benediction.

Ceremonies will be conducted near the Council chambers at new city hall on the southwest corner. Mayor Howell will cut the ribbon, introductions and speeches will be short and Laurence E. Dayton, deputy grand master of the grand lodge, F&AM, of California, will unveil the plaque.

Many other special presentations are anticipated. Committee members include Bud Rooney, Joe Dagna, John Pleich, Walter Sears, Josephine Foley, Phyllis Lyon, Allan Vincent, Myrtle McLean and Marietta Ferreira.

IF YOU'VE BEEN in Security Savings and Loan and heard the delightful Christmas carols played on the bells, you'll be interested in this story. Manager Bruce Boyd heard them a few days ago while she was strolling along the boardwalk in Atlantic City. She wanted to buy a bell, but talked herself out of it. But she couldn't forget them. When she returned home, she told her sister in New Jersey the name of the shop. The sister couldn't remember. The sister, however, asked a man from her town who was going to Atlantic City if he could try to find them. He tried up and down the boardwalk until he heard the bells. He jotted down the name of the shop. The sister called Bernice, who arranged her order and the bells arrived by air just in time for Christmas at Security Savings.

It seems we have more homes decorated than usual and it's fun to drive around and look at them. The puzzles us, however. There's a house on Key Route Blvd. that has only one decoration: a red and white banner reading "MERRY CHRISTMAS."

Johnny Pleich of Flowerland, who has already made arrangements with the Exchange club to have a permanent living Christmas tree for the firemen decorated at the new civic center, donated a pretty white tree to the Christmas. It stands at the

YMCA World Service

Philip N. McCombs, chairman of the Berkeley-Albany YMCA World Service Committee, is pointing out the location of one of the newest YMCA's in the world located in Mabarrara, Uganda. Looking on are Henry Austin, left, chairman of the World Service Committee of the Albany branch "Y" and Al Alstrand, committee chairman for Berkeley Central "Y."

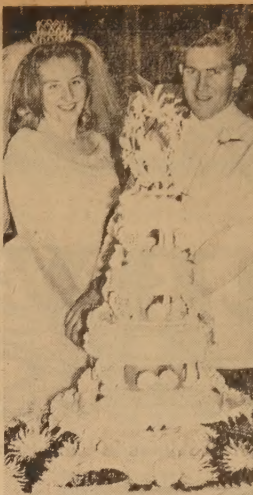

In a recent letter from former Berkeley "Y" secretary Dan Tyler, who now is the Fraternal YMCA secretary in Uganda, he indicated that the Mabarrara YMCA had just completed its first annual membership enrollment. This association, along with the one in Kampala and Jinja, bring the membership up to 3,000 for the Uganda YMCA. Tyler states, "I would like for you to know that for every dollar you raise in Berkeley we members of your staff (far removed) can multiply that amount five times in value to a developing nation; in service to youth who are experiencing YMCA for the first time; in training leadership both lay and professional; in financing our associations, where the annual national budget does not equal some city Community Fund Campaign in U.S.A."

The Berkeley-Albany YMCA has just completed its annual World Service enrollment in which "Y" members and friends were asked to share in this important YMCA work around the world.

Henry Austin, with the help of Bill Belden, Walter Kees, Bill Woolworth and Ted Valli, reported in over 140 per cent of goal for Albany to set a record for the campaign.

Band Boosters Report Plans For New Year

Members of the Albany High School Band Boosters at their last meeting commended band leader Ernest (Doug) Douglas on the performance of the AHS Band in the Veterans' Day parade in Alameda.

The master of ceremonies had announced over the public address system that the citizens of Albany have raised enough money to buy complete new outfits for the band but the uniforms had not yet arrived. Nevertheless, they marched so smartly in their white ducks and candy-stripe vests that theirs was the only band pictured on the front page of a large metropolitan daily just south of here! Now we hope to use the uniforms first on the home ground—at the dedication of the new civic buildings.

In their meetings, Band Boosters have discussed projects for the coming year. They have decided to have a fish fry again to finance such projects. (Save the date of Friday, Feb. 11.)

Band Boosters are parents and friends of band or orchestra members, or students of instrumental music. At recent meetings members have heard reports from Band President Dennis Rogers and Orchestra President Tony Cravatto. Their main concerns have been additional instruments, and trying to arrive at a uniform style of dress for orchestra performances.

Officers of the Band Boosters for 1965-66 are: president, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Volheim; vice president, Mr. and Mrs. Al Drozda; publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Dario Meniketti; secretary, Mrs. Thomas Toothaker; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Polivka; membership chairman, Mrs. Willy Coring.

Anyone wishing to join should contact Mrs. Coring at LA 5-9002. Dues are $1 a year per parent. The next regular meeting is Jan. 17, 1966.

Roland Grisham Installed by Lodge 686, F&AM

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, Roland R. Grisham was installed as Worshipful Master of Albany Lodge 686, F&AM.

Other officers also installed were: Jeff Eichner, senior warden; Harold Carson, junior warden; Ernest Selman, treasurer; Henry Stenman, secretary; Roy Johnson, chaplain; Pete Noe, senior deacon; Gary J. Hodgson, junior deacon; Crawford "Pop" Norman, marshal; Elmer Holm, senior steward; Arthur E. Doss, junior Steward; and Charles L. Moore, tiller.

Installing officers were Clarence E. Noble, retiring master; Edgar (Pete) Jourdan, PM, installing officer; Delbert E. Salsstrom, PM, master of ceremonies; and George T. Wendover, PM, installing chaplain.

Edith Crawford was the installing pianist. Vocal duet by Carol Jones, PHQ, and Joni Lynn Grisham, PHQ, accompanied by Shirley Kester completed the lovely program. After the installation program, refreshments were served.

Richard's Jewelers Burglarized Friday Morning

Albany police report that Richard's Jewelers at 1272 Solano was burglarized some time between 2 a.m. and 9 a.m. Friday. Between $3,000 and $5,000 worth of the most expensive items were taken.

Entry was gained through a rear window, according to Officers Gerald Martin and Bernard Johnson and Sgt. James McLeod, who investigated.

At 7:50 a.m. Friday, Adela Chester of Solano Wave Shop at 1487 Solano reported a burglary there. About $10 was missing.

The dietician at Albany hospital reported that between 8 and 10 p.m. Thursday, burglars had entered but less than $5 had been taken.

Other pre-Christmas crimes on the police bulletin include the burglary of $129.78 at Tom's Charcoal Broiler, 437 San Pablo, Dec. 15; of $330 worth of liquor and $100 in cash at the Solano Club at 1403 Solano Dec. 5, and a $5,700 1965 Imperial from H. L. Moore Chrysler-Plymouth on San Pablo Saturday night.

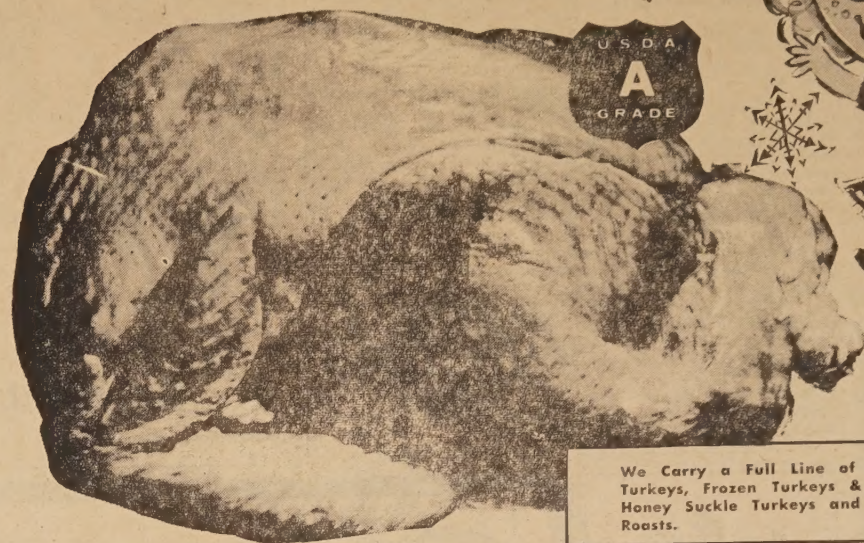

Those reporting thefts of outdoor Christmas tree lights are William Butler of 960 Nielson; Noel Lavery of 825 Pomona and Jack Murrow of 1028 Talbot.

Soroptimist Christmas Party

The Soroptimist Club of Albany will hold its annual Christmas party Wednesday, Dec. 22, at Serb's Restaurant at 12:15 p.m.

Gertrude Filicetti, chairman for the day, is making elaborate plans for everyone's enjoyment.

Barbara Lynn and Ann Hilly will entertain and Santa will arrive during the luncheon.

All sustaining members are expected to be present. Members bringing guests must make reservations. President Helen Fake will preside. This will be the last meeting of the club this year.

Churches

Christian Science: The service to be read in Christian Science churches this Sunday will emphasize the rich blessings which an understanding of Christ Jesus' mission brings to mankind. The Lesson-Sermon begins with the prophecy from Isaiah (9:6): "Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Among the correlative readings will be the first tenet of the Christian Church: "As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal Life" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy p. 497).

The Lesson-Sermon subject is "Christian Science."

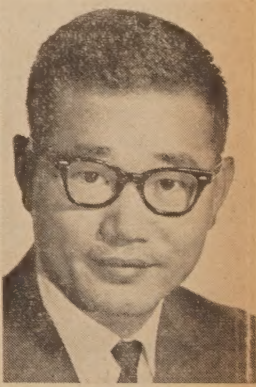

The Christian Science Society of Albany is meeting at the church edifice, 1358 Marin Ave. Sunday morning services are at 11 a.m. and the Wednesday evening meetings are held at 8 p.m. The Sunday school convenes every Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Sunday morning services and the Wednesday evening meetings, and all children are invited to come to the Sunday school, where they can learn more about God and His love for man.

Grace Lutheran Church, Santa Fe at Ward: A family service will be held Christmas Eve at 7 p.m. with the Sunday school children participating with carols, recitations and tableaux.

A Christmas day Festival Service, with Holy Communion, will be held at 11 a.m., with Rev. O. R. Janke, pastor, speaking on "Christmas - Miracle and Mystery." Anthems will be sung by the women's choir.

Sunday, Dec. 26: In the 9:30 and 11 a.m. service, the Minor Festival of St. Stephen, the Martyr, will be observed, with the sermon by Rev. O. R. Janke, pastor, on the topic "The Christmas Saint." Sunday school and Bible classes at 9:30 a.m.

Evangelical Free Church, 7200 Schmidt, El Cerrito: Pastor Donald Bowman will be speaking on "Hope In A Child" at the 11 a.m. Service Sunday. Music by the Senior Choir. 7 p.m. inspirational hour will be a musical program with a variety of vocal, instrumental and charola numbers. Sunday school convenes at 9:45 a.m. for all the family. Youth groups, at 5:30 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. New Year's Eve smorgasbord and service is Dec. 31, 7 p.m. to midnight.

APPOINTED — S. "Wellington" Ginn, 1141 Talbot Ave., Albany, has been appointed local distributor for Frantz Oil Cleaner by Sky Corporation. Ginn has been using the Frantz Oil Cleaner for two years himself. After looking at the Sky Corporation's advertisement in "Life" magazine and his own amazement of the product he has decided to become the distributor for this community. Say You Saw It In the Times!

Fire Department
Warning on New Lighters

The Albany Health Department and Fire Prevention Bureau received the following message from the U.S. Public Health Service.

"A potentially dangerous cigarette lighter has been called to our attention today in a warning issued by Paul V. Jolie, M.D., Chief, Division of Accident Prevention, U.S. Public Health Service.

"The product is an AIR-FLAM lighter and is known thus far to be purchasable in Washington, D.C. and has been advertised in Chicago, Illinois, for mail order sale.

"The lighter looks like a large lipstick or perfume vial. The lid comes off easily and the vapor ignites immediately on contact with air with a flame which is almost invisible. The hazards include a possibility of a child or an adult accidentally or intentionally opening the lighter and being burned by the almost invisible flame or accidentally igniting furniture, clothing or drapes which could lead to a full scale fire and serious or fatal burns.

"The fuel is advertised by mail order from Le Mir Products of Van Nuys, Calif. The parts, according to a statement on a package, are imported from West Germany."

This department recommends steps be taken to inform the public of this potential hazard. The State Fire Marshal is investigating this device for potential jurisdiction and action.

Krugers Leave Historic Home for Santa Barbara

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kruger bid them goodbye this week when they moved from their Albany home at 524 Stannage to Santa Barbara. It terminated Mr. Kruger's 55 years of residence in Albany, and Bert in talking to this reporter, nostalgically recalled many incidents of his childhood days in Albany.

His family first moved to 612 Stannage in 1910, and his father was employed by the University of California at the old Gill Nursery in Albany, now site of the Albany Civic Center. In 1919, the family, consisting of father, mother, brother Waldemar and sisters Anita and Nelda, moved to the large picturesque frame home at 524 Stannage Ave., which was to serve as the family home of the Krugers for the next 46 years. The home had been built by Albany City Councilman Robert C. Somerset.

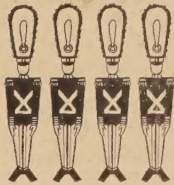

of continuous employment as an interior decorator, he retired this week, and was honored by his fellow employees and by his firm with a gold watch and diamond cuff links.

The pine tree planted as a seedling by Bert's father in 1919, stands tall and majestic in front of the old Kruger homestead and few old-time Albany residents will pass by the charming old home without remembering the Krugers. Bert and his wife Fran, a most youthful looking couple for being in retirement, plan on traveling, and enjoying the leisurely life of Santa Barbara.

The Kruger home was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Forrest of 990 Kains Ave., Albany, who plan on moving in right away. Sale of the Kruger property was handled by Anne Wise of Jerome Blank Realty.

THE YULE SEASON:

Each year about two million Californians—plus a half dozen cats and dogs—play Santa Claus to themselves well before Christmas. These are the members of "Christmas Clubs" now in effect in many California banks and savings institutions.

Throughout this month these members are receiving many millions in checks.

It is, of course, money they have put in painstakingly every other week during the last year and so they are in effect paying themselves back. It is hardly a gift, but it is a handy source of year-end funds to purchase gifts and pay other non-holiday expenses, such as annual insurance premiums which somehow always seem to coincide with the Yule season.

The plan is simple. Anyone who joins a Christmas savings club signs an agreement to make regular deposits for a total of 50 weeks. The amount is up to the saver, but generally is required to be deposited in specified amounts.

The club year comes to an end in November when the savings checks are mailed out. There is, of course, nothing to prevent a person from redepositing a part or all of his savings into next year's account or a savings account and the accumulation process begins all over again.

As a rule, the money put into a club account can be withdrawn at any time, which defeats its purpose. Partial withdrawals before the expiration of the 50 weeks generally are not allowed. It is easier to leave it all in or take it all out.

Often employees in a company join a club together. One member is designated to take the weekly payments and coupon books and make the deposits for the group.

Why do people join Christmas clubs?

It is estimated that about half do so each year "because it gives me money for Christmas gifts when I need it most." These people emphasize the fact that they would not have saved money otherwise.

Other reasons are: the ease of putting aside a small sum each week; a convenient method of saving for taxes and insurance; and the freedom from worrying about unpaid bills after holiday and spending ends.

Of the dollar total, about 40 per cent will be priming the economy for Christmas purchases, and roughly six per cent will be used to pay year-end bills. About 30 per cent will go into saving and investments, and about 13 per cent to pay local and federal taxes. The rest goes into miscellaneous outlays.

This has been the usual pattern for years save for World War II when a lot of funds were used to purchase War Bonds.

As opposed to their Eastern counterparts most California banks and savings institutions pay interest on the accounts, although most accounts are operated at a loss.

It is also estimated that about 25 per cent of the people participating in these programs are 25 years old or younger and fully half of all participants are less than 35 years of age.

There are no statistics available on where the savings of dogs and cats go each year. But at least one dog earned his weekly deposit by "singing for pennies" ... the year-end check was earmarked for a new tooth he lost in a collision with a car.

Editor, the Times:

As 1965 draws to a close, I want to take this opportunity to thank you and members of your staff for the wholehearted cooperation and assistance given to the Post Office by your newspaper.

The publication by you of articles concerning the postal service has been a most important contribution in making this Christmas season—as well as the entire year—the most efficient and economical in our history.

All personnel of the Albany Berkeley-Kensington Post Office join me in wishing you and all the employees of your organization a merry Christmas and good health, happiness and prosperity during the coming year.

Sincerely,
GEORGE B. KOHLER
Postmaster.

Editor, the Times:

As the season for gift giving approaches, we are pleased to announce that the people of the Berkeley - Albany - Kensington - El Cerrito area have sent a gift of $2,880.15 to the children of the world. This is the total amount raised by the sixth annual Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF program in our community. As our share of the nationwide drive which annually involves over 3 million American children in 12,000 communities for a total of over 2 million dollars, this money will be used to support some 500 UNICEF projects for children and mothers in more than 100 parts of the world.

We wish to thank every person who contributed in any way to our campaign. This includes the 600 children and 600 teen-agers who were involved in the actual door-to-door solicitation. It also includes the 134 adults who were involved in supervision of the children's collecting, distribution of collection cartons and instructional sheets, obtaining city permits, publicity and counting and tabulating the receipts. Special words of appreciation are in order for the Durant Avenue Presbyterian Church for again providing a central office, for the El Cerrito Co-op for its excellent program in that area, for the Albany YMCA for its use as a supply center, and for this newspaper for its cooperation in publicity.

Finally, we thank all of you whose response in everything from pennies to one check for one hundred dollars made possible such a successful result. We know many of you support UNICEF beyond the Trick-or-Treat program as evidenced by your enthusiastic purchase of UNICEF calendars, greeting cards, and note paper at our United Nations Association Information Center in the Shattuck Avenue Co-op, Cedar and Shattuck. We invite all of you to make use of the Center for information about the United Nations Children's Fund and other

Local Women Awarded Silver Hearts By County Heart Association
Alameda County women who have served in positions of leadership in the annual Heart Sunday campaign between the years 1960 and 1965, have received silver heart awards from Mrs. J. Lloyd Eaton, county chairman in 1960.
The little charms, each with a red heart emblazoned on its face, can be added to bracelets, put on chains, pins, etc., and signify a generous contribution of time and energy to the fight against diseases of the heart and blood vessels.
Many of the women are already signed up for their sixth year of service for Heart Sunday, having volunteered for February 23-27, 1966.
Berkeley women this week honored by the Heart Association include: Mrs. Fred Bottom, Mrs. Phillip K. Ferrier, Mrs. Walter C. Frank, Miss Irene Lehr, Miss Leona Shapiro, Mrs. Frank Small, Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, and Mrs. George White.
Other women in Alameda county who have completed five years of Heart Sunday leadership, include: from Fremont, Mrs. Roosevelt Bergman, Mrs. Phillip Dertsch, Mrs. Charles Friedman, and Mrs. Gilbert Head; from Albany, Mrs. Clark Berry; from Hayward, Mrs. Grady Corbitt; from San Leandro, Mrs. Frank Crall, Mrs. Richard Harkey, Mrs. Emma Hutson, and Mrs. Anthony Pontis; from San Lorenzo, Mrs. Lloyd England and Mrs. John Roberts; from Alameda, Mrs. Gunther Gates; from Livermore, Dr. Ina Gourley; from Piedmont, Mrs. Oscar Powell; and from Union City, Mrs. Jacob F. EMERGENCY DIRECTORY
During an emergency nearly everyone is under extreme nervous tension and information does not readily come to one's mind under those conditions. Captain Raul Miranda, who heads the fire department first aid squad, points out that each household should have a handy, readily available directory listing emergency numbers.
He further states, that this list should consist of the following emergency roster:
The Fire Dept. 525-7140
Resuscitator 525-7140
The Police Dept. 525-7300
Ambulance 525-7300
Your Family Physician: both his home & his office number.
Any changes in the directory roster should be made to avoid delays in placing calls and receiving aid.
In conclusion Captain Miranda suggests that in the event of an emergency where there is indecision or doubt as to calling the fire department, call the department and give the information to the man on the switchboard and let him decide for you.
